A New And Better Way For Medicare Field Agents To Make More Sales

This is the end of begging for referrals, networking, cold calling, and buying cheap leads that don't answer the phone or turn into enrollments.

Use our proven system of setting high-intent, in-person meetings that turn into relationships, which leads to enrollments, that stick on the books.

All agents are not created equally...some are producers. Many are not.

Before I had this sales meeting setting service, it was difficult getting face to face sales meetings using mailers. The sales meeting setting service has been a game changer.

With the sales meeting program I sold two clients my first day. I am now able to see clients that were in my area and were receptive to seeing an agent. My day was planned out and I had many clients scheduled.

Medicare Express has been wonderful. Their communication is 5 star. They ask the right questions when scheduling the appointment before I go out for a face to face. Highly recommend!
